

International Association of Nature Pedagogy Conference Scotland, UK 2016

'Nature is at the root of Science'

Date: Thursday 25th August 2016

Venue: Dunblane Hilton Hotel, Stirlingshire, Scotland

Motivate yourself and others by listening to emerging trends and up to date research which can be used to support development of your team and centre.

Network with national and international colleagues from around the globe, including the opportunity to engage with our speakers.

Gain confidence and energy by developing a deeper understanding of Early Childhood, Outdoor Learning and Nature Pedagogy through workshops. Leave with practical tips.

Discover ways to teach using the natural world and learn how to bring nature pedagogy into your setting.

Cost: £150 for non-members & £90 for non-member students

Member Offer: £120 for members & £75 for member students

Annual Member fee of the International Association: £30

Engaging Keynote Speakers

David Sobel

Claire Warden

Anders Farstad

Trudi Bennett

"Nature pedagogy – Learning with nature, inside, outside and beyond." (Warden 2015)

REGISTER: <http://www.naturepedagogy.com/training-and-events/>

More about the IANP

This organisation is designed to promote and support nature based pre-schools, nature and forest kindergartens and nature schools around the world.

- To raise the profile of the professional status of a Nature Pedagogue.
- To increase the number of nature based pre-schools and schools around the world through networking and support

To become a member and for more information, please visit www.naturepedagogy.com