John Muir Award in Schools

Toby Clark, 15th March 2018
SAPOE, Stirling

A photograph of two young men in a forest. The man on the left is wearing a black t-shirt and is pointing at a field guide. The man on the right is wearing a white hoodie with a logo that says "DCYP" and "WITH PROJECTS". They are both smiling and looking at the field guide. The field guide has various illustrations of plants and leaves. The background is a dense forest with many trees and branches.

Trust backs Scotland's Year of Young People 2018

31 January 2018

Scotland's outdoors - it's braw*

As Scotland celebrates the talents and achievements of young people through a dedicated themed year, the John Muir Trust will be listening to their ideas, attitudes and ambitions, and exploring new ways of bringing a new generation closer to wild nature.
